NOTES OF THE TURF.

Montauk, who was purchased from Richard Croker by W. Sibary, met with his first defeat over hurdles in the Wimbledon hurdle race, two miles, at Hurst Park recently. With 154 pounds on his back he started at the prohibitive odds of 8 to 1 on, and running out after half the journey had been covered he was beaten in the end by eight lengths. His weight in the international hurdle race to be run at Gatwick is 164 pounds, an unusually heavy impost for a four-year-old. Chandos, the crack of the timber toppers on the other side is asked to shoulder 185 pounds.

Barney Schreiber made one of his old killings on Charlemagne at Ingleside Monday last. He held the colt out of his book and bet on him wherever he could. The colt was given to Barney by Henry Forsland, who so excellently makes our form charts at Ingleside and Oakland. Forsland bought Charlemagne for $50 as a yearling.

Weights for the Washington Handicap to be run during the Bennings meetings are as follows: Deerslayer, 5, 123; Dutch Skater, 6, 124; Premier, 4, 119; Septour, 4, 118; Volley, 4, 110; Arabian, 3, 106; Hi Daddy, 106; Billali, 3, 105; Buddha, 3, 103; Maple Prince, 4, 97.

The Ideal Park Stakes filled well, as was natural. They were well displayed, are built on up-to-date lines and the officials did not sit down and wait for entries to come to them, but went to the horsemen and took their orders. That is the modern way.

Barney Schreiber, Tully Coulter and some more of the Eastern horsemen in California will make entries to the Montana stakes and may go to Anaconda and Butte to sample the field.

The New York Court of Appeals has decided the Westchester betting case on the keen lines of the Percy-Gray law in favor of the Westchester Association and the law.

Jim McCormick is almost ready to be about again. He will not go to California, but will handle the Eastern stable of Burns & Waterhouse.

Handspring is training well in Frank McCabe's hands at the Brooklyn track.
